

AMENDMENT TO THE DECLARATION OF COVENANTS,
CONDITIONS, RESTRICTIONS AND DEDICATION OF EASEMENTS FOR SITUS PLACE

THIS AMENDMENT is made this 3/5 day of March, 2010 by Situs Place Homes Association, Inc. (hereafter referred to as "Association") and the undersigned owners ("owners") of the following described land:

See Exhibit A

W I T N E S S E T H:

WHEREAS, on September 12, 1984, Lester T. Cook and Catherine I. Cook and House and Home Construction, a Kansas corporation ("Declarant"), filed that certain Declaration of Covenants, Conditions Restrictions for Situs Place, recorded in Official Records Volume 2062, Page 534 et seq., of the public Records of Johnson County, Kansas ("Declaration"); and

WHEREAS, pursuant to Article XIV, Section 2 of the Declaration, the Declaration may be amended at any time by the written consent of Members representing two-thirds of the total members of the Association.

WHEREAS, the Board of Directors has proposed to amend and restate the Declaration in order to update the method of community governance, to establish a flexible and reasonable procedure to govern owners of residential units, and to further define the procedures for architectural review responsibilities within Situs Place, among other things; and

WHEREAS, two thirds of the total members in the Association, consent to amend the Declaration by adopting the Amended and Restated Declaration of Covenants, Conditions, and Restrictions for Situs Place ("Amended Declaration") as attached hereto; and

NOW, THEREFORE, the Declaration is hereby amended by adding the following:

A. The Property subject to this Declaration shall be used for residential purposes only.

KW

Slagle, Bernard & Gorman

B. Living units may not be leased or rented except in the following circumstances:

- (1) Grandfathering. Owners who lease their living units prior to the adoption of this amendment may continue to lease their living unit as long as they own the unit. This exemption shall remain effective for owners of currently leased living units so long as those living units remain leased. In event said leased living units are sold, this exemption shall cease.
- (2) Hardship Exception. Any Living unit may be leased or rented for a period not to exceed 18 months in any five-year period (such five-year period beginning at the inception of the lease or rental agreement) in the event that:
  - a. The living unit Owner has temporarily relocated due to employment and advised the Board of Directors in writing of the circumstances and of the living unit Owner's intent to return to the Living unit, or
  - b. The living unit Owner is temporarily residing in a hospital, nursing home or other type of extended care facility due to a medical condition and the living unit Owner or her/his legal representative advises the Board of Directors in writing of the circumstances and of the living unit Owner's intent to return to the living unit.
- (3) Leasing Requirements. Any leasing of a Living unit according to the circumstances described above shall be subject to the following restrictions:
  - a. Written Leases Required. Occupancy or use of a living unit by a person, other than an owner, a member of the owner's family, or a temporary caretaker, shall require the execution of a lease agreement or lease addendum between the owner and the occupant upon a form specified or approved by the Board of Directors. No owner shall lease to a corporation, partnership, trust, or entity other than a natural person. Each lease shall stipulate that if the lessee, after notice from the Board of Directors, shall fail to conform to the provisions of the lease, the Bylaws, the Declaration and the rules and regulations of the Association, the Board of Directors shall be authorized to evict or require the lessee to vacate the premises on 30 days written notice, and lessee shall do so without prejudice to the Board's other legal remedies. During the term of the lease, either the lessee, or the owner of the living unit, but not both, shall be entitled to the privileges of use of the common elements and facilities.
  - b. Partial Living Units May Not Be Rented. No portion of a living unit, other than the entire living unit, may be rented unless a portion of the living unit is rented to a caretaker of the unit owner or to a relative of the owner. In either instance, the unit owner must continue to reside in the living unit. Except as provided herein, no Living unit may be let or sublet for period of less than 12 months, whether or not rents or other fees are received by the owner. No living unit within the subdivision shall be rented for transient or hotel purposes.

- c. Record Keeping. All owners shall provide the Board of Directors or management agent with the identity of the occupants of their living unit.
  - d. Violation of Governing Documents. In the event a tenant is found to have violated the Bylaws, the Declaration or the rules and regulations of the Association (after being given notice of the violation and an opportunity for a hearing thereon), the Board of directors shall be authorized to require the owner of that living unit to evict or require the lessee to vacate the premises on 30 days written notice. In the event that the owner fails to evict her/his tenant, the Board may evict the tenant and the cost thereof shall be assessed to the owner of the living unit and constitute an assessment for which the Association has a lien against that living unit, enforceable as all other assessments pursuant to Section 13. The Board may exercise its rights under this provision without prejudice to the Association's other legal remedies.
  - e. Background Checks. All owners leasing their living unit must conduct background and criminal checks on their tenants and provide such findings to the President of the Association before a lease agreement is executed. Owners may not lease to convicted felons. Owners must evict tenants who are charged with a felony during their lease term at Situs Place.
  - f. Delinquent Assessments. Owners may not lease their living unit if any assessments against the lot are delinquent. In the event the Association files suit to recover delinquent assessments of a leased living unit, the owner designates the lessee as agent to receive suit papers and summonses to court in legal actions to recover such delinquencies.
  - g. Additional Leasing Restrictions. No owner shall lease to a corporation, partnership, trust, or entity other than a natural person. Each lease shall stipulate that if the lessee, after notice from the Board, fails to conform to the provisions of the lease, the Bylaws, the Declaration and the rules and regulations of the Board, the Board shall be authorized to evict or require the lessee to vacate the premises on 30 days written notice, and lessee shall do so without prejudice to the Board's other legal remedies.
  - h. The purpose of this Amendment is to ensure that, except in limited circumstances described above, units will be occupied by owners.
- (4) Family Provision. No Living unit shall be leased to more than two persons not related by blood or marriage.
